

A black and white photograph of a young child with dark, curly hair, captured in profile from the waist up. The child is blowing a small, dark feather with their mouth, and the feather is suspended in the air just above their hand. The child is wearing a dark t-shirt with a graphic print of a cartoon character and dark pants. The background is a blurred park setting with other people and trees. The lighting is soft, suggesting an overcast day or late afternoon.
